

CALIFORNIA WESTERN INTERNATIONAL LAW JOURNAL

VOLUME 31

FALL 2000

NUMBER 1

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Selected Articles and Essays from the Conference on the Present State and Problems of Family Law in the Transformation Period of Post-
Communist States (27-29 June 1998, Prague, Czech Republic)

Relationships Between Family and Government Lynn D. Wardle	1
The New Aspects of Russian Family Law Maria V. Antokolskaia	23
Rights of Custody and Access Under the Hague Child Abduction Con- vention—"A Questionable Result?" Marilyn Freeman	39
Activities of the Council of Europe in the Field of Family Law Marta Requena	53
Children's Rights in the Hungarian Judicial Practice András Körös	67
Changes in the Modern Era Lead to the Evolution of Hungarian Family Law and Children's Rights Emilia Weiss	75
Croatia's New Family Act and Its Implications on Marriage and Other Forms of Family Life Dijana Jakovac-Lozić	83
The Significance of Biological Parentage in Yugoslav Family Law Gordana Kovaček Stanić	101
Yugoslavia: The Medico-Legal Issue of Transsexuality Marija Draškić	115

Parental Responsibility and State Intervention
Ruth Farrugia 127

ARTICLE

Saving Lives in the International Court of Justice: The Use of Provisional Measures to Protect Human Rights
Alison Duxbury..... 141